Oral Warrant December 03, 2023

1	FBI SA HARDY: Okay.
2	THE COURT: This is Judge Paul Briones,
3	United States Magistrate Judge of the District of New
4	Mexico. Today is December 3rd, 2023. The time is 7:55
5	PM. I am on the telephone with FBI Agent Lorraine
6	Hardy.
7	Agent Hardy, would you tell me the nature of
8	why or I guess it's a search warrant that you're
9	seeking, correct?
LO	FBI SA HARDY: Yes, correct, two search
L1	warrants.
12	THE COURT: Okay. Well, let me do this: I
13	need you to be recording this. Are you already
14	recording this conversation?
15	FBI SA HARDY: Yes.
16	THE COURT: All right. So raise your right
17	hand.
18	FBI SA HARDY: Okay.
L9	THE COURT: Do you swear or affirm that the
20	statements that you are about to make orally are true
21	and correct, to the best of your knowledge?
22	FBI SA HARDY: Yes.
23	THE COURT: All right. Agent Hardy, tell me
24	first your credentials to seek a federal search
2.5	warrant.

Oral Warrant December 03, 2023

FBI SA HARDY: Yes. I'm a special agent 1 with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I work 2 primarily Indian Country crimes up in the northwestern 3 New Mexico area. 4 I have experience in all kinds of Indian 5 Country crimes, to include homicide, assault, child 6 sexual assault, and serious bodily injury as well as 7 interstate crimes involving analyzing cellular telephones, etc. THE COURT: Okay. So let me ask you this: 10 What crimes are you investigating this evening which 11 you are seeking a search warrant for? 12 FBI SA HARDY: Yes. This evening, 18 U.S.C. 13 113(a)(6), which is assault, uh, resulting in serious 14 bodily injury as well as 18 U.S.C. 2241(a)(1), which is 15 aggravated sexual abuse using force. 16 THE COURT: All right. And are these -- is 17 this a crime you're investigating within Indian 18 Country? 19 FBI SA HARDY: That is correct. 20 THE COURT: All right. Which would be under 21 18 U.S.C. 1153? 22 FBI SA HARDY: Correct. 23 THE COURT: All right. Well, tell me the 24 facts that you are -- have become known to you giving 25 reason for the search warrant.

FBI SA HARDY: Yes. Yesterday, Jane Doe lives in Shiprock and was walking on Highway 491, which is the major highway through Shiprock.

And the subject was, later identified through law enforcement as Nathan Mescal, year of birth 1989, pulled up in a late model blue Chevrolet pickup truck bearing New Mexico license plate 442WYS and grabbed Jane Doe and threw her in the truck.

Jane Doe tried to escape, and the subject ultimately hit her in the head with the butt of a pistol. The pistol was identified as a black semiautomatic.

Jane Doe was thrown in the truck, and the subject sped south down Highway 491 towards Sanostee. Jane Doe tried to attempt to jump out of the pickup truck. The subject would grab her and pull her back in, yelling and threatening her. She still -- driving at high speeds as well. She still attempted to jump out of the truck, and he slammed her head into the dashboard where Jane Doe became unconscious.

Jane Doe woke up sometime later, and the subject was dragging her into a white single-wide residence. The GPS coordinates to that residence were identified as 36.4294730, negative 108.8619751.

When Jane Doe was drug into the residence, right inside the front door on the living room floor, the subject began to beat her up, hitting her with his fist in the face and the head. She fell to the floor, and he ultimately started kicking her while on the ground to her back and stomach.

He then forcibly removed all her clothing and grabbed her and drug her into the bathroom where he drug her by her hair of her head and then threw her in the bathtub, breaking the floor of the bathtub. And then she was drug into the hallway where he continued to rape her.

The subject was drinking alcohol, which was in a silver bottle, a large silver bottle, and then dumping it down Jane Doe's face, attempting to make her drink but ultimately choking her.

The subject would get angry when Jane Doe would fight back. There were several times during the evening, yesterday evening and night, where Jane Doe was raped multiple times in the living room, bedroom -- subject's bedroom, and the bathroom, and also strangled multiple times by both of the subject's hands around her throat, where she passed out multiple times.

Jane Doe defecated and urinated on herself as well as going in and out of consciousness and throwing 1 up on the living room floor. Jane Doe was naked the 2 whole time, clear until this morning where the subject 3 gave her some of his sweat clothes, to include a black 4 sweatshirt and some black sweatpants. 5 The subject continued to rape Jane Doe 6 vaginally all morning. He never left her side. When 7 he did, she ultimately threw herself out the bedroom window and ran to the neighbor's. 9 The neighbors -- there was a witness who 10 answered the door and let her in. The subject was 11 chasing her with the firearm, and then ultimately ended 12 up pounding on the back door of the neighbor's house 13 where police was called. 14 THE COURT: All right. I find -- well, let 15 me ask you this: I find probable cause to issue the 16 search warrant. I assume of, what, the home that this 17 occurred in? 18 FBI SA HARDY: Yes. 19 THE COURT: And the vehicle that you 20 described as well? 21 FBI SA HARDY: Yes. 22 THE COURT: Okay. And what is the exigent 23 circumstance requiring an oral warrant this evening? 24 FBI SA HARDY: Yes, Your Honor. The 25 residence where this occurred, the subject has two other family members who also live there. And there is also -- I believe that the evidence that I described earlier in the affidavit could be ultimately cleaned up or destroyed if the home wasn't secured prior to the search warrant.

And there just is not enough officers in the area to keep the home secured for any length of time to be able to obtain that warrant tomorrow.

THE COURT: All right. I find that the individual that you -- has the perpetrator been arrested?

FBI SA HARDY: He has not. He led officers on a foot chase through the desert and ended up in an arroyo. And then it became dark so the officers called the search off due to the danger of the subject having a firearm and threatening them with it. They will continue to look for him tomorrow.

THE COURT: Okay. I find sufficient probable cause to issue a warrant for the vehicle and a warrant for the white single-wide trailer that you described by GPS coordinates.

I am going to ask you to read the coordinates again, particularly the second string of numbers, please.
